

HIGHLANDER SEVENTY

The Highlander
Volume VIII, 1970
Highland High School
Sparta, Ohio

The day begins as Sammy Ayers "stashes" his coat in his locker.

LEFT: A school bus ride isn't the most pleasant way to start the day but it's better than walking. ABOVE: Collecting absence slips is one of Rox Rowland's duties as office assistant.

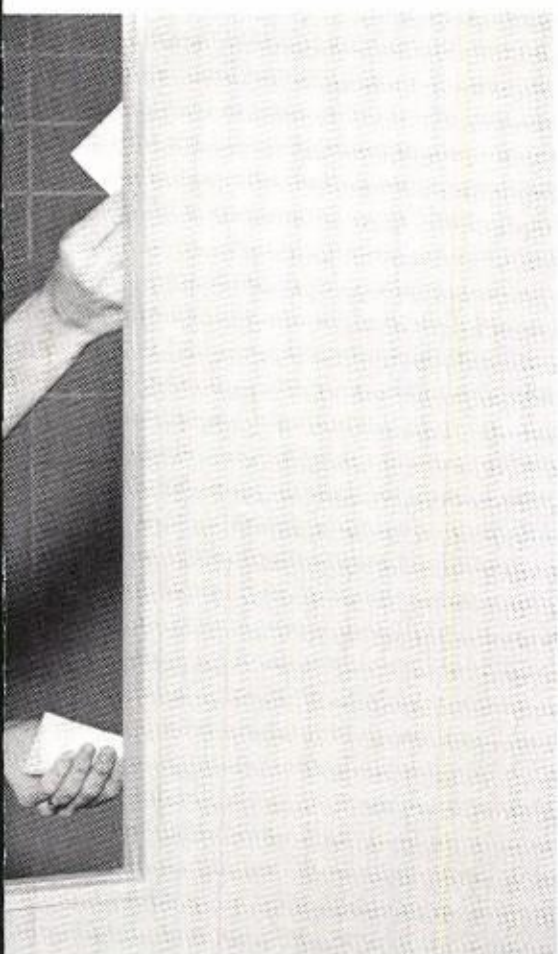

The sound of the alarm three hours too soon ... a closet full of dirty clothes ... the decision of what to wear ... facing a bowl of cereal every morning ... taking time to pack your lunch, then forgetting it ... opening your locker and all your books fall out ... playing tag with the school bus ... a nice smooth bus ride standing up ... driving to school ... the morning announcements ... the shouts and greetings of friends ... the day begins.

The step off the bus is a big one, when you would rather be in bed. Just ask Randy Bush.

Norma Wien finds out that teachers can be very helpful.

A boring lecture, we can do without. Just ask Debbie Caulkins.

Classes change and for Brad Leo and Kathy Bird it means "together again."

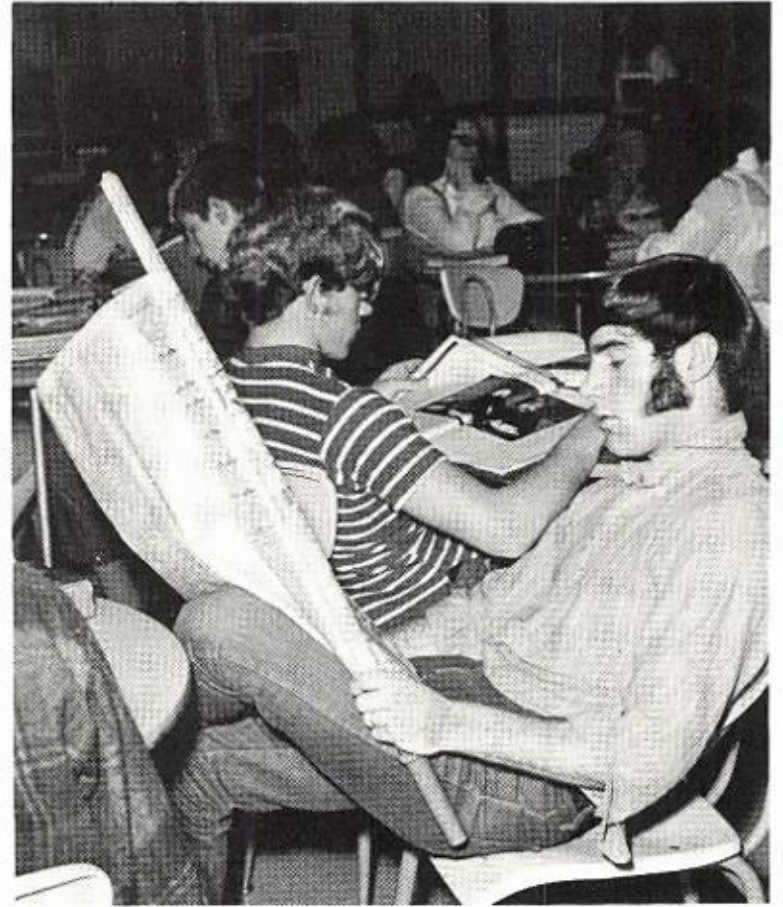

Pat McCoy finds out there are really a number of beautiful books.

Study diligently, Norma Wien. It pays out in the end.

Pat Tobin discovers that the newspaper provides entertainment when all else fails.

The endless hours of study hall ... makeup work ... a wadded up paper on the desk ... working frantically on a report due yesterday ... throwing a spit ball and the boy next to you gets blamed ... sitting in the front row listening to your stomach growl and knowing that there is a candy bar in your purse ... the changing of classes ... planning to meet your boyfriend, then the teacher decides to keep you after class ... It can all be found at Highland.

LEFT: A quiet moment is hard to find, but Vicki and Gary Davis manage to capture an instant in time.

A typing lesson takes concentration as Pam Scarberry finds out.

The shock of typing without any errors ... a week of typing on the electric typewriter ... exploding chemicals ... test tubes ... graduated cylinders ... the smell of freshly baked cookies ... the steady pace of a sewing machine ... your stomach growling twenty minutes before lunch ... Lunch time ... the clatter of trays ... the "brownie man" ... the mob at the candy machine ... THE FOOD ... a chance to do that forgotten homework ... What would HHS do without Lunch Break?

RIGHT: "Oh Boy, I don't think this is going to work", says Kathy Sherman.

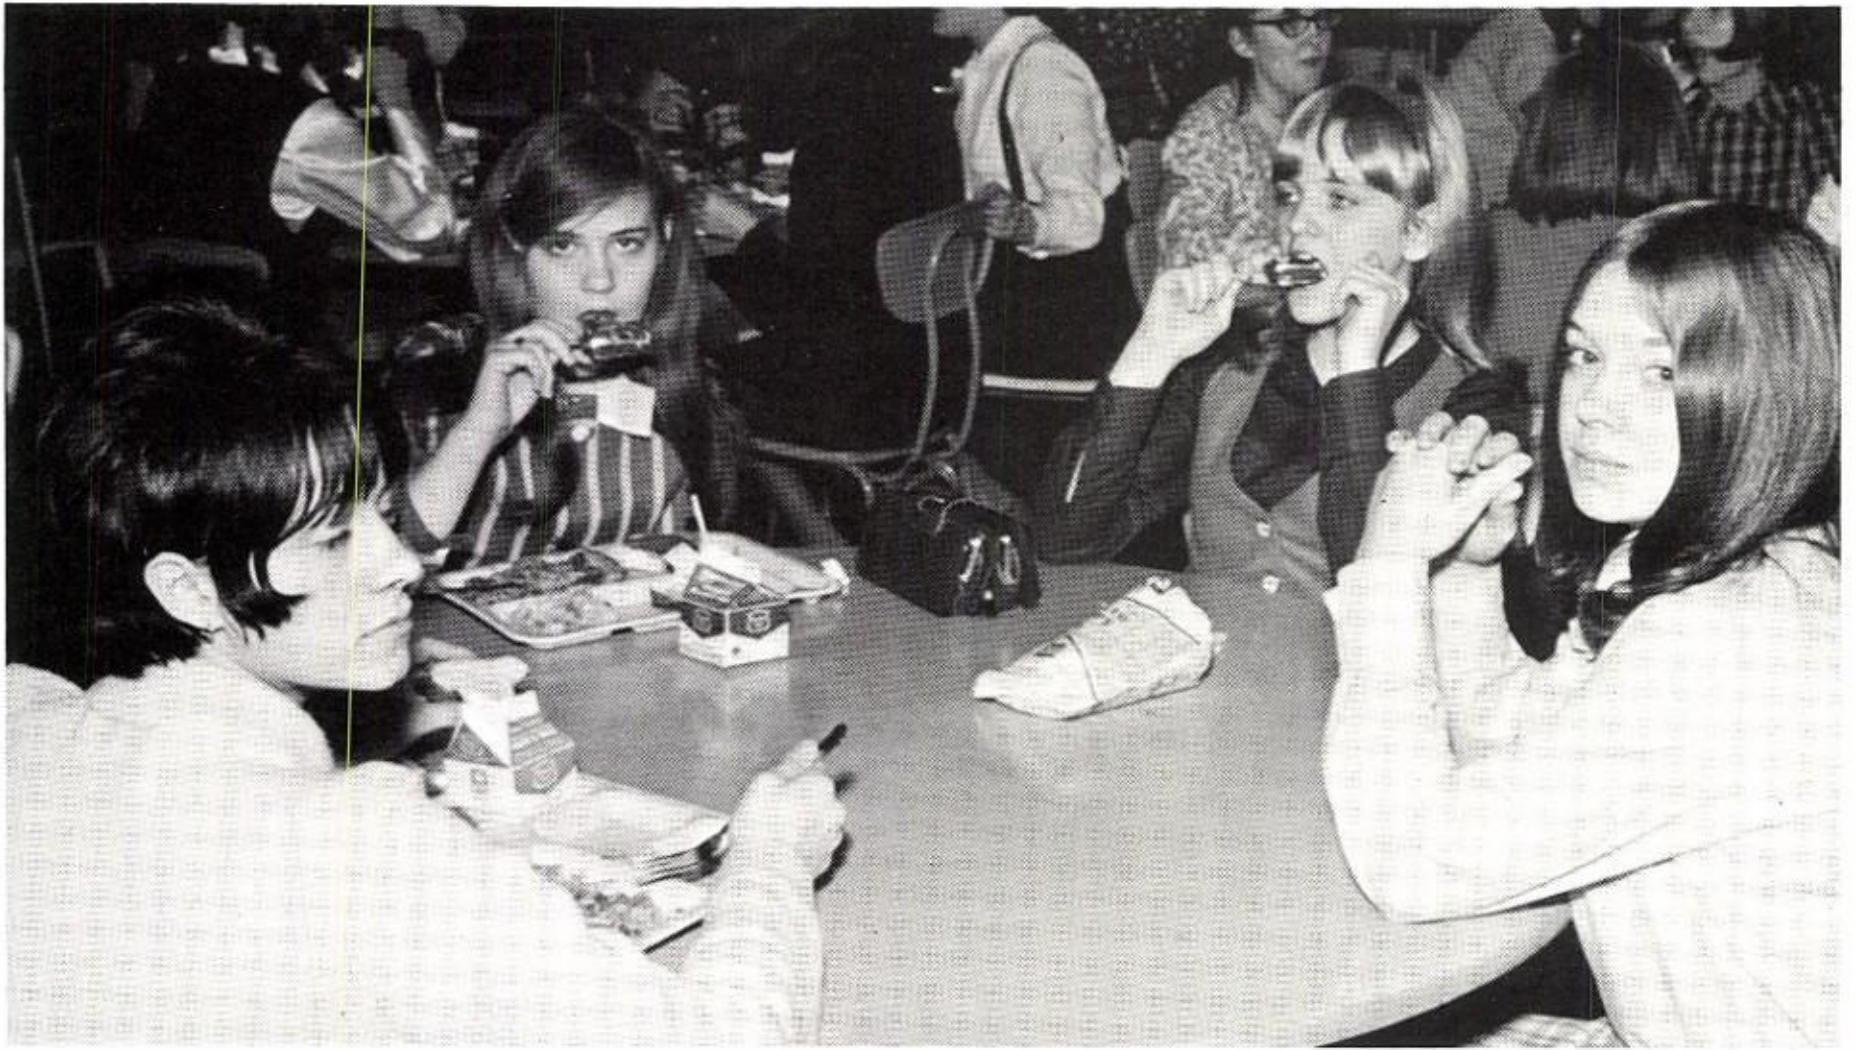

Intriguing Chemistry experiments keep Clyde Adams busy.

Students Relax During Lunch

Lunch can be a chore when you are not hungry.

A good time to "goof" around.

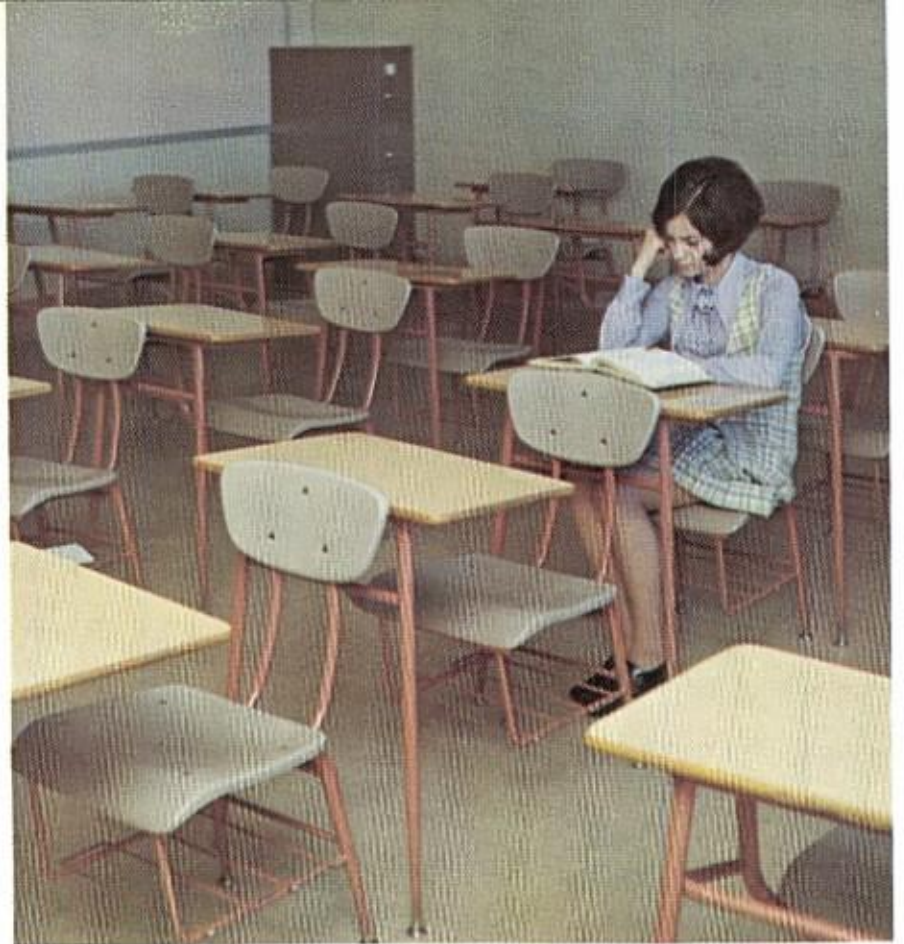

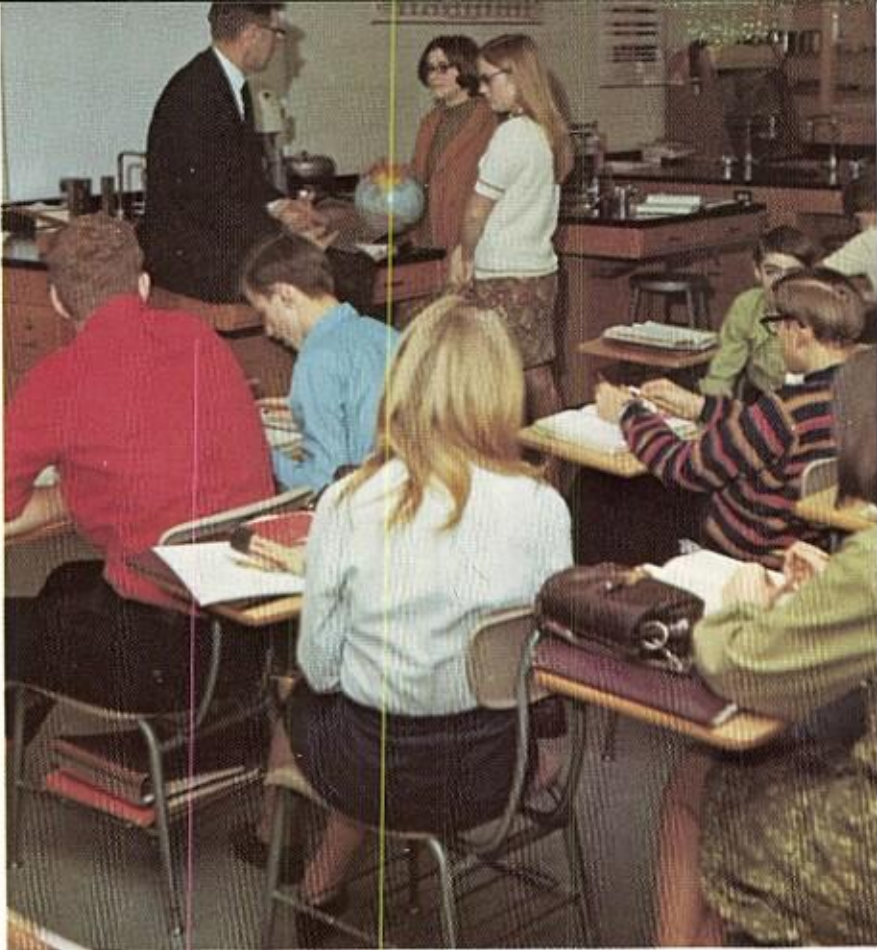

LEFT: On Chow Mein days, the candy machine draws more people than the lunchline.

Wondering what you will be doing forty years...seven hours devoted to class... carrying six heavy books home every night...Going steady...sharing a cluttered locker three ways... report cards...changing a flat tire in school clothes...club meetings...leaving your English book in your History class...spending all night on one assignment that didn't have to be handed in...a student dashing off to school ten minutes late...A senior grasping twelve years of hard work in his diploma.

There Is Nothing Like Senior Year

Four chefs are required to fry that first doughnut.

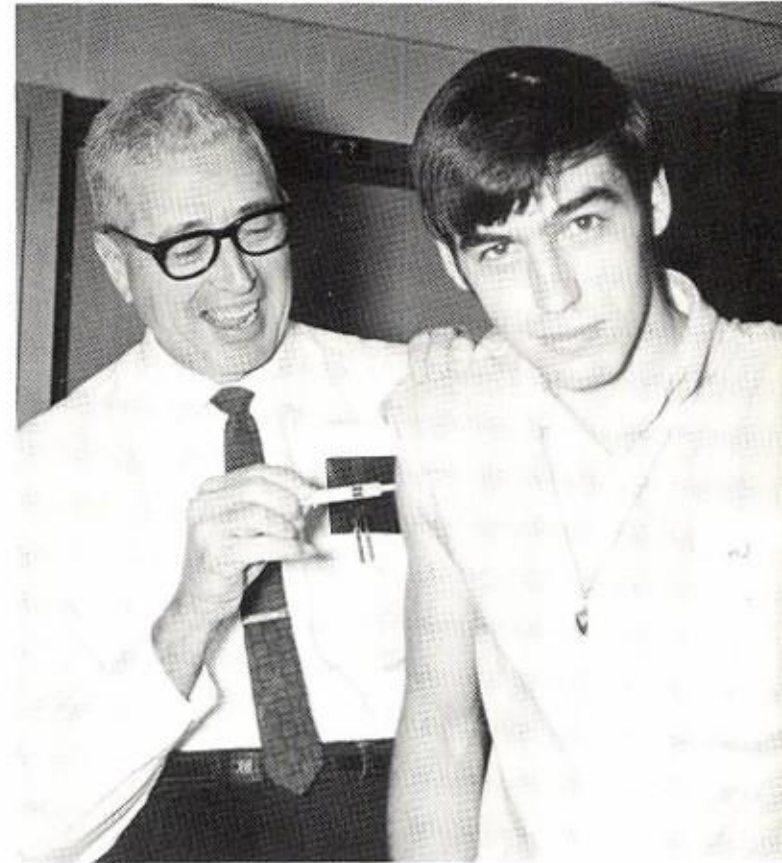

UP: As school pianist, Jan Davis spends much time transposing music.

The emotional strain of a losing game shows on cheerleader Debbie Sample.

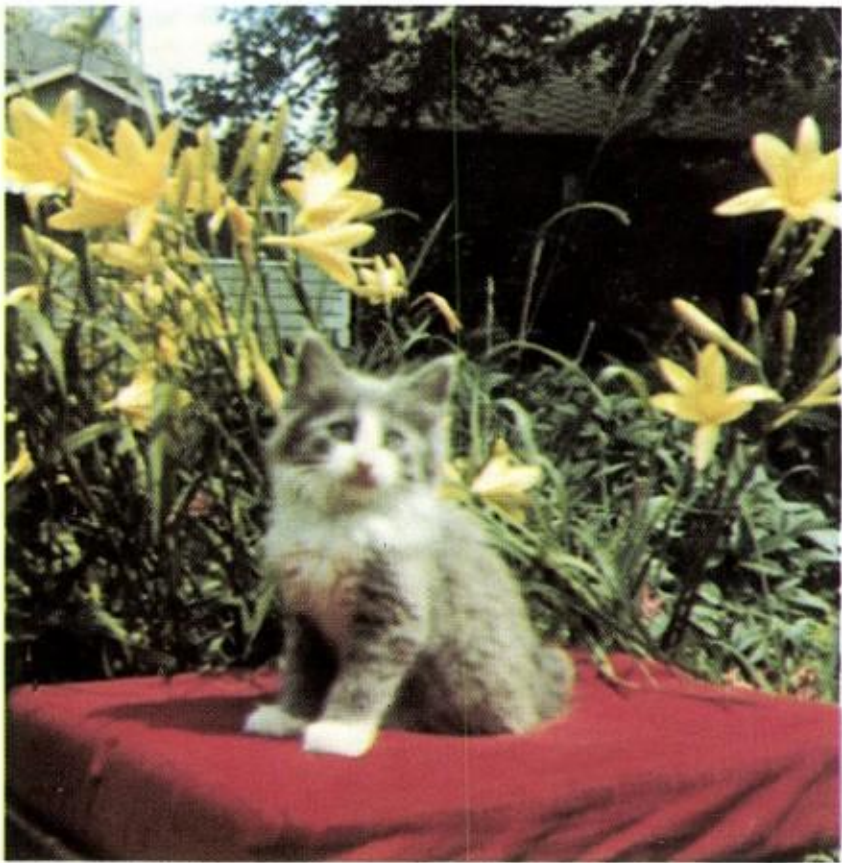

Tom Burch takes his Senior shots in easy stride.

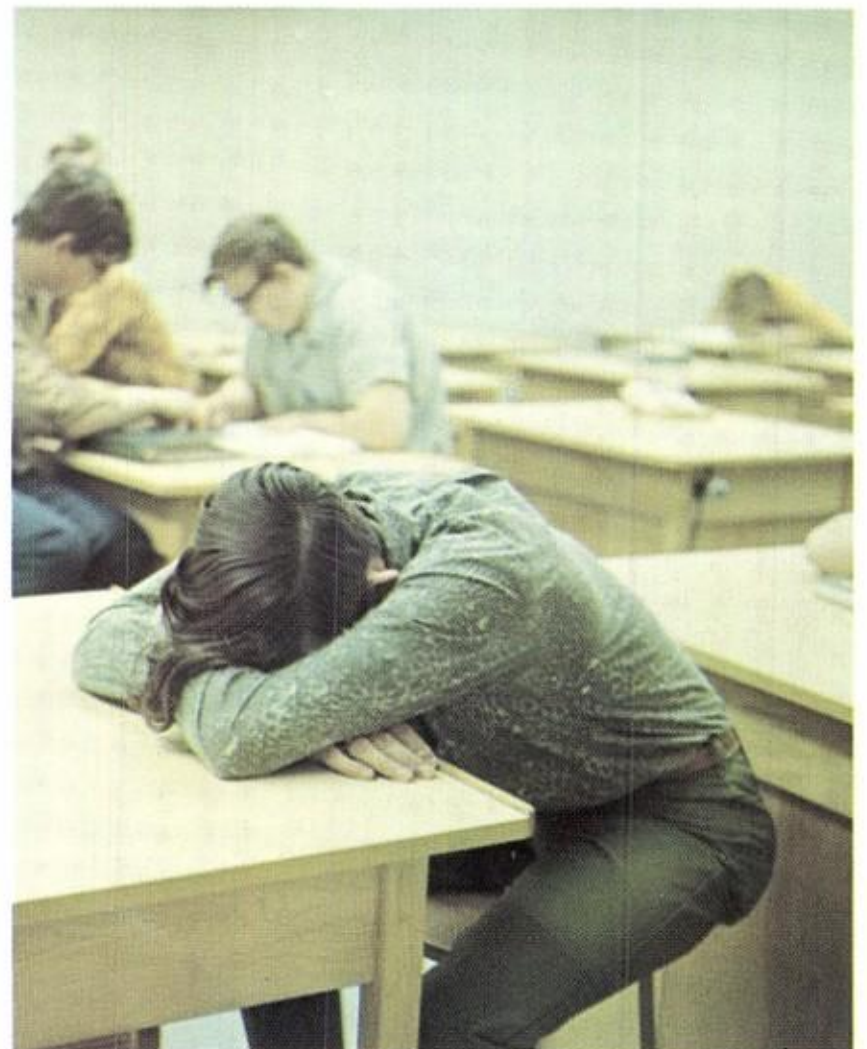

Senior shots aren't really as bad as Steve Buck thinks.

Organizations

Hard Work Faced The '70' Yearbook Staff

By lunching together, Co-Editors Debbie Sample and Cherri Geckley find time to discuss a new layout.

"Yearbooks are for everyone" is a good motto for underclass editors.

Prospective Members Of The World Of Medicine

MCC ... touring hospitals ... five minute meetings during lunch ... after school volunteer work at the Chesterville Convalescent home ... the thought of giving aid to someone in the future ... receiving millions of pamphlets ... President Esther Headings ... it's all in the happiness of being a Medical Careers member.

The members demonstrate some of the things their future jobs will require of them.

The Medical Careers Club.

F.B.L.A. For Career Training

Convention delegates and chaperones.

Janette shows pride in carrying our trophy we won at Convention. For largest percentage of attendance.

Farm mechanics take a breather.

F.F.A Prepares Farmers For Tomorrow

1970 CHAPTER

Homemakers Prepare For The Future

Sticking yourself with a needle ... the pride of having your first cake rise ... wearing your new dress to school then having the seam fall apart ... dining in the elegant French Field House ... burning your first meal ... being taught how to diaper a baby with two baby brothers at home ... ditty bags at Christmas ... FHA is FUN!

Highland Varsity Stands With Pride

Top Students Represented In Honor Society

*SCHOLARSHIP LEADERSHIP
SERVICE*

Double Your Knowledge In The Library

Kathy Sherman finds a book for Carolyn Scarberry.

Student librarians put in a lot of time and effort such as Debbie Moore, Jan Alicie, and Kim Westbrook.

A smile can always be found on the face of Mrs. Potts, our librarian.

The library is always busy and student librarians, such as Karen Henson and Mark Hankins are a big help.

Future Secretaries

"A little goofing off never hurt anyone" says Phylis Kempton.

Many jobs and long hours are asked of office helpers who respond cheerfully to the call.

When the figures turn out right, Mrs. Fulton is awed with disbelief.

Queen Linda and her helpers at a "not-so-busy" moment.

Benefit From Actual Practice

Cherri Geckley faces the job of counting the money every day.

Students are greeted in the morning by the smiling faces of Danny Rogers, Gregg Potts, Cris Leo, and Janette Crow.

Four year helpers Vicki Wise and Cris Leo give special aid to Mr. Ingraham.

Girls Athletic Association

The active members of GAA participated in volleyball and basketball very successfully.

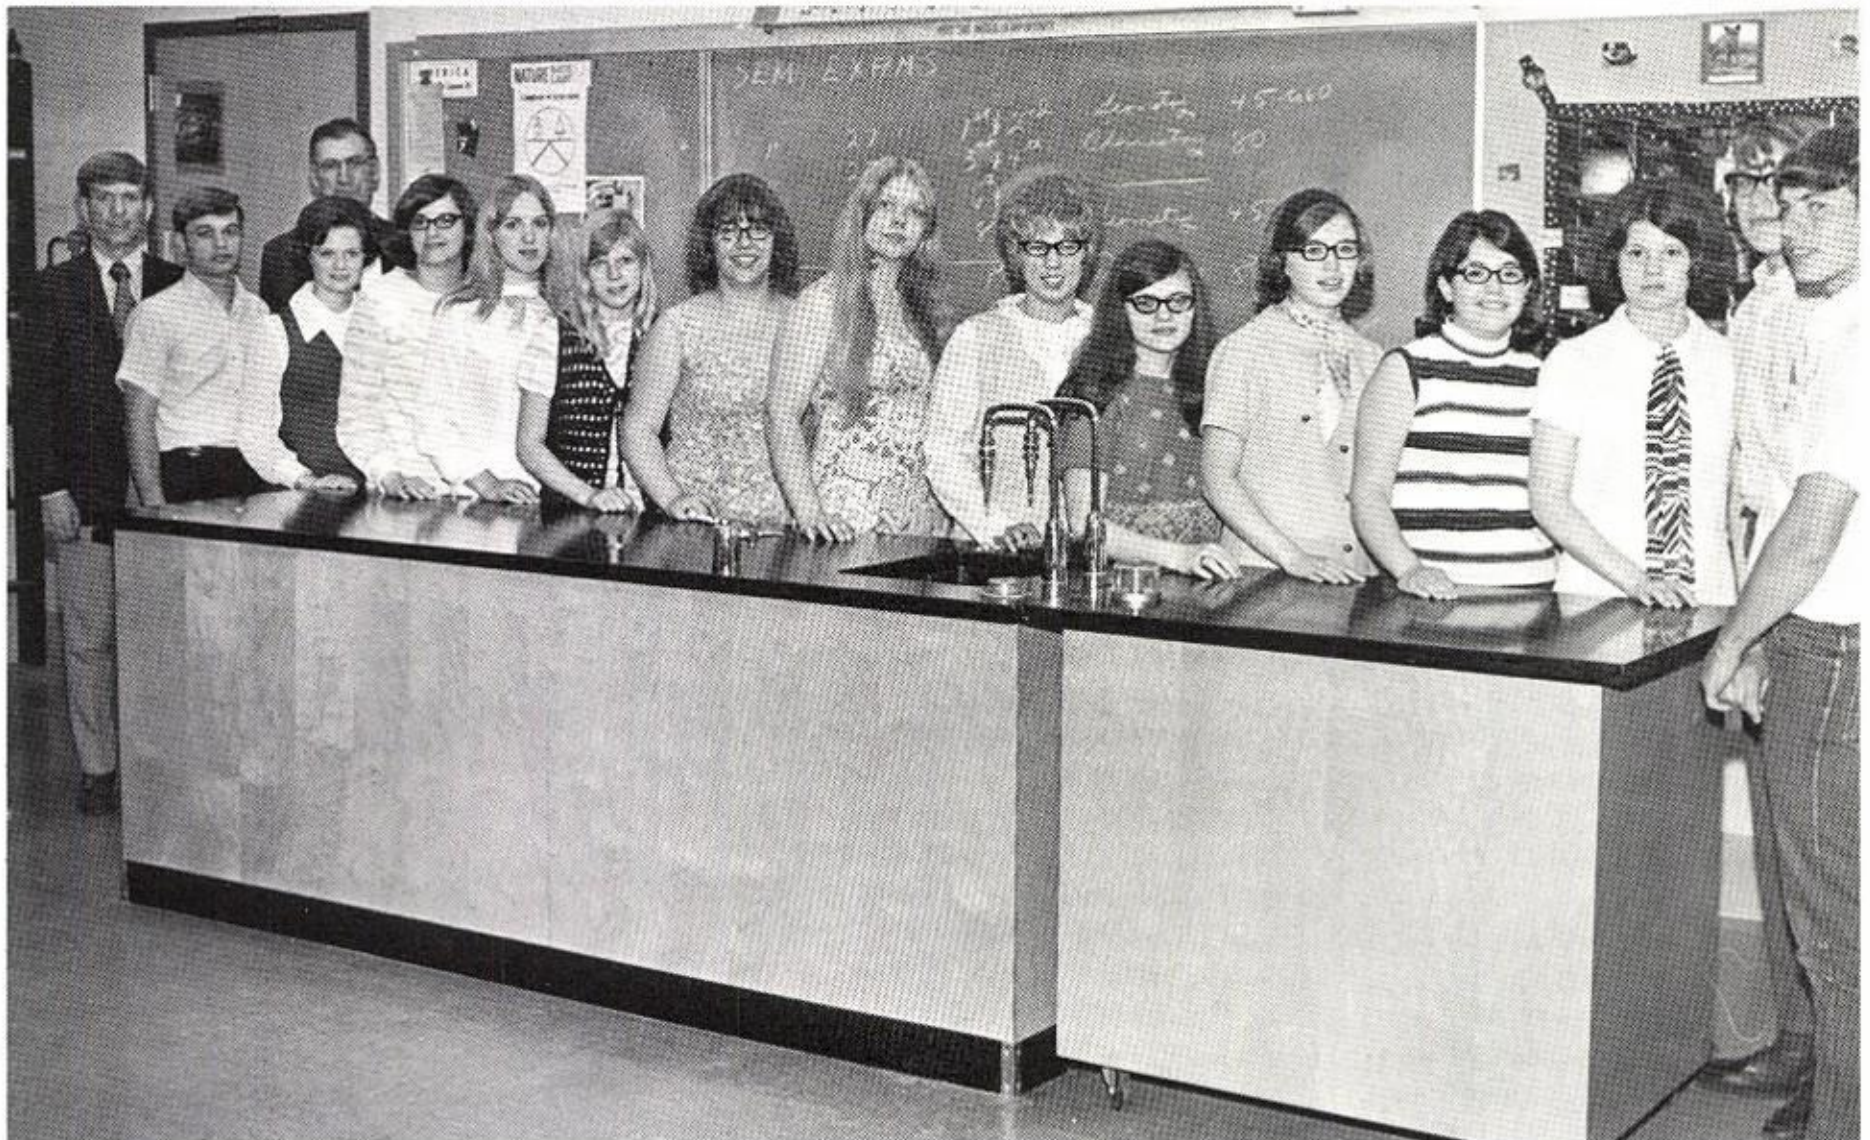

1971 OFFICERS: Becky Kemmer, Art Henson, Doug Clark, Dennis Kemmer, and Sherry Lehman.

1970 OFFICERS: Dennis Kemmer — Reporter; Jenny Phillips — St. Council Rep.; Debbie Sample — President; Chris Mathias — Treas.; Marla Knapp — Sec.; Richard Myser — V. Pres.; and Advisor — Mr. Cherrington.

HIGHLAND SCIENCE CLUB OF AMERICA

President, Bob Jenkins, listens attentively to problems of the school.

Future Teachers Are In Great Demand

Future Teachers start the new day with a fresh smile.

A banquet in honor of Mrs. Logan, the former advisor, brings many sad moments.

Senior members are ready to learn the teaching profession at college.

A farewell party for Mrs. Logan ... the hard work of president Jan Davis ... standing outside of a room for five minutes gaining the courage to go in and teach ... finding out that teaching isn't as easy as it looks ... teaching rallies at Capitol University ... finding out if teaching is for you ... that's what it's all about in Future Teachers.

Taking a left turn when it should have been a right turn ... marching seven steps to five yards ... Mr. Glauner singing the music to you ... dropping your music while marching down the field ... the embarrassment of being the only one out of line ... being yelled at because you forgot your hat right before the game and are supposed to be on the field ... having an itchy nose while standing at attention ... marching down the field and stepping in a big mud puddle ... having your hat fly off while marching ... yelling with the crowds up in the bleachers ... taking time out for a coke ... clapping your hand so hard that you can hardly play your instrument ... doing your half time routine in the rain on Homecoming night ...

And Our Band Goes Marching On

Concert Band ... Being scared before playing a solo for the first time ... playing the wrong song ... giving Mr. Glauner a present and having him bawl you out afterwards ... practicing ... practicing ... practicing ... being afraid to play in front of all the people ... Pep Band ... Playing "Charge" and no one yelling ... Everyone not showing up at games ... Playing the same song over and over again ... Having the basketball hit you ... trying to yell and play at the same time ... everyone singing as we play the fight song ... getting an applause for the half time music ...

Chorus Sings Their Song

The direction of Mr. Charles Snyder ... the feeling of accomplishment when you reach "peanut heaven" on a Monday morning ... feeling amazed by the accomplishments of pianist Jan Davis ... Mr. Snyder holding his little pinkie finger in the air ... a memorable experience Chorus 1970 ...

Going to Cardington to practice for the all county ... telling Mr. Snyder a lie in order to collect money for a present ... chewing gum while singing ... singing the wrong verses in "Up Up and Away" ... only a few out of Choir showing up for a Concert ... listening to ourselves over a tape recorder ... stopping in the middle of a song to present Mr. Snyder with a present ... Mr. Snyder singing our parts with a sore throat ... Genie Stauffer talking while everyone else is singing ...

Listening To Choir Is "Music To The Ear!"

The "motor starts running" as Physiology students watch in amazement before a dissection.

Many plans must be made before the FTA students can begin the day's excursion.

Sports

Being the first player to run out of the locker room ... run, tackle, run tackle ... leading in exercises ... making the perfect tackle then finding out he was on your side ... the thrill of donning your uniform for the first time ... the broken pride of wanting to cry then finding yourself doing it ... the silent victory bell ... Coach Adams ... Mr. Black and Mr. White ... One, two, up down, one, two, in, out ... There's nothing like football.

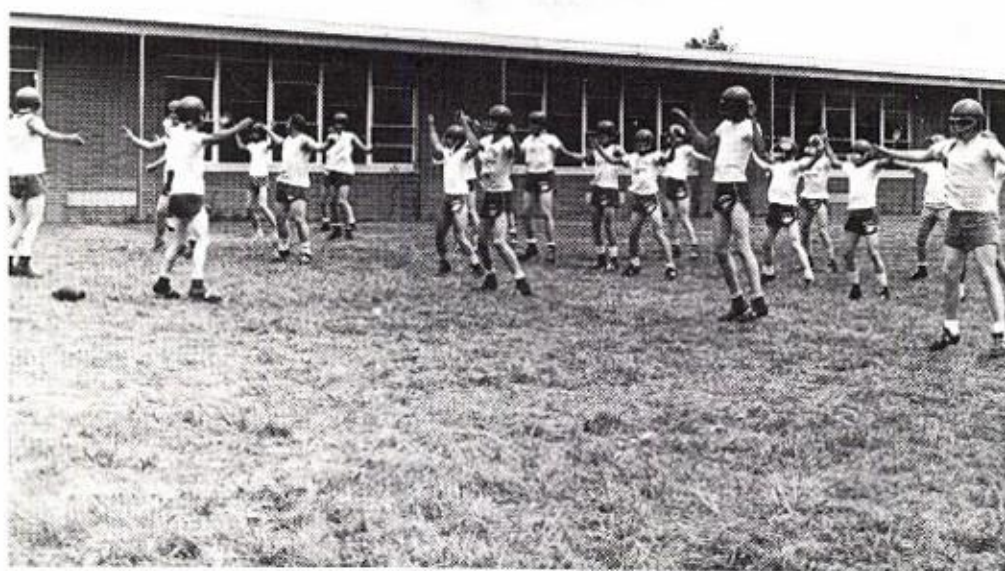

The extra point is good as Richard Myser falls over the goal line.

RIGHT: Tom Davidson leads the receivers against the Big Walnut Eagles.

Summer exercise is a must for football players.

The Scots try hard to regain control of the ball.

A block by Tom Davidson and Richard Myser gains a few yards for Highland.

THIS YEAR'S TEAM IS MOST DESERVING OF THE HIGHEST PRAISE WE CAN OFFER.

They carried on unselfishly against many handicaps and they fought courageously for the loyalty and honor of their school. The Staff Salutes them!

Alan Wickline drives through the line and gains a few yards for the Scots. With a spurt of energy, Art Kanagy rushes to overtake the opponent. Both boys were selected as members of the All Ohio Conference League.

The Scots had a rough, tough season.
Teams need coaches as well as players.

The Fighting Scots staff; Mr. Black, Mr. Dewald, Mr. White, and Mr. Stephan. Head Coach, Mr. Adams.

Those stomach "butterflies" ... slimy mouth guards ... polished shoes and shined helmets before a Friday night game ... those fighting seven seniors ... five nights of practice for two hours of glory ... breaking your best friends neck at practice ... a coach's words of praise, all make up the Fighting Scots.

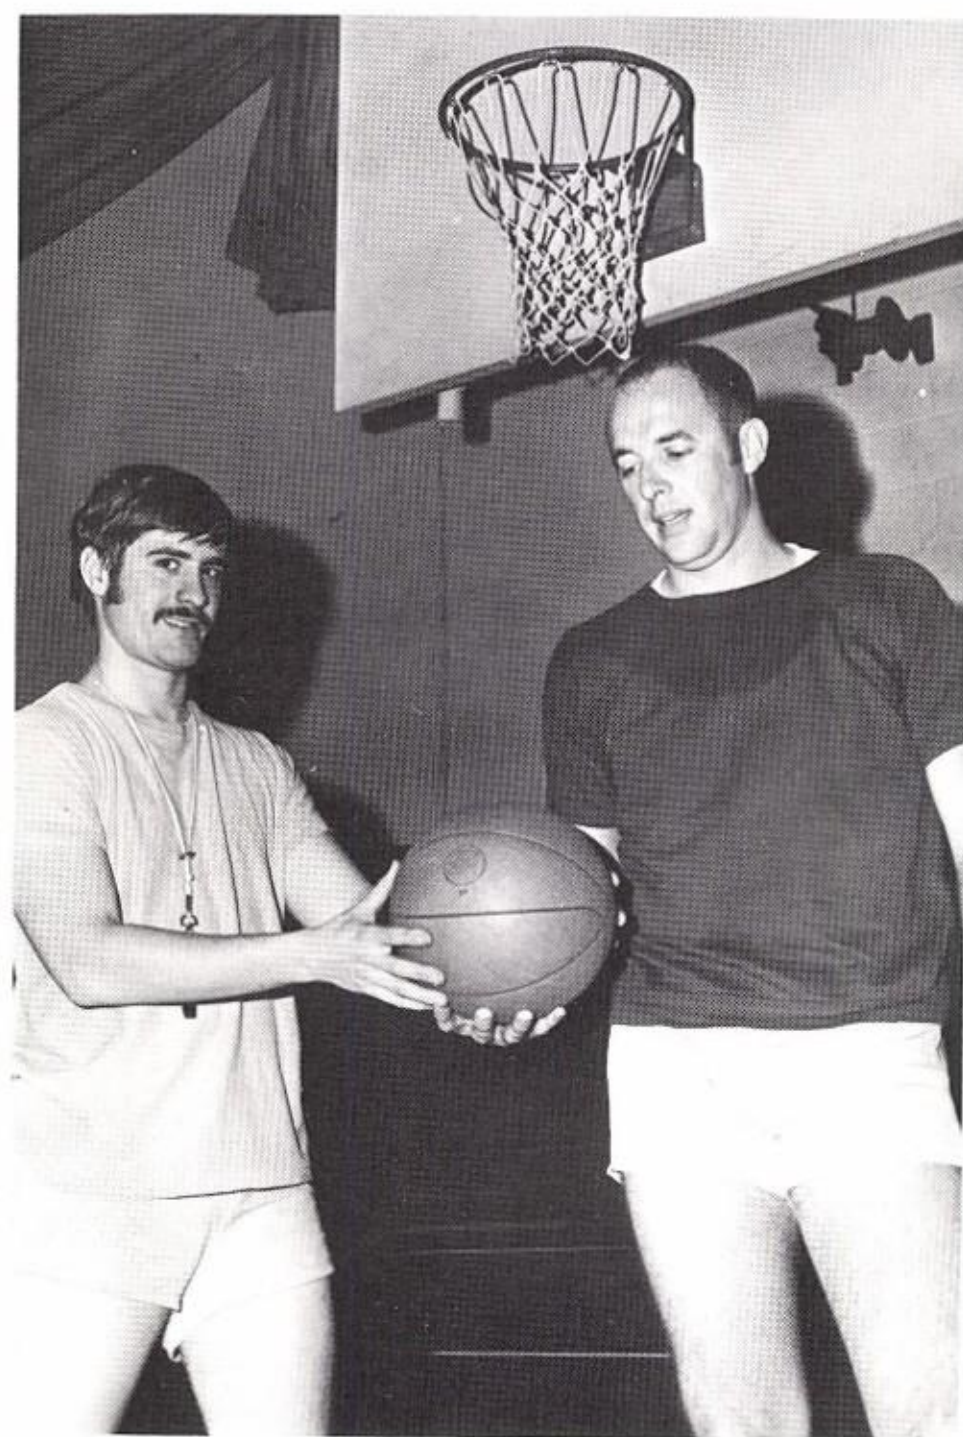

The Highland Varsity Team, Manager, and Cheerleaders

LEFT: With the combined effort and dedication of Coach Stose and Coach Stephan the Scots brought home many victories. All-in-all it was a "very good year."

Baseball Players In Making — College Or Pros?

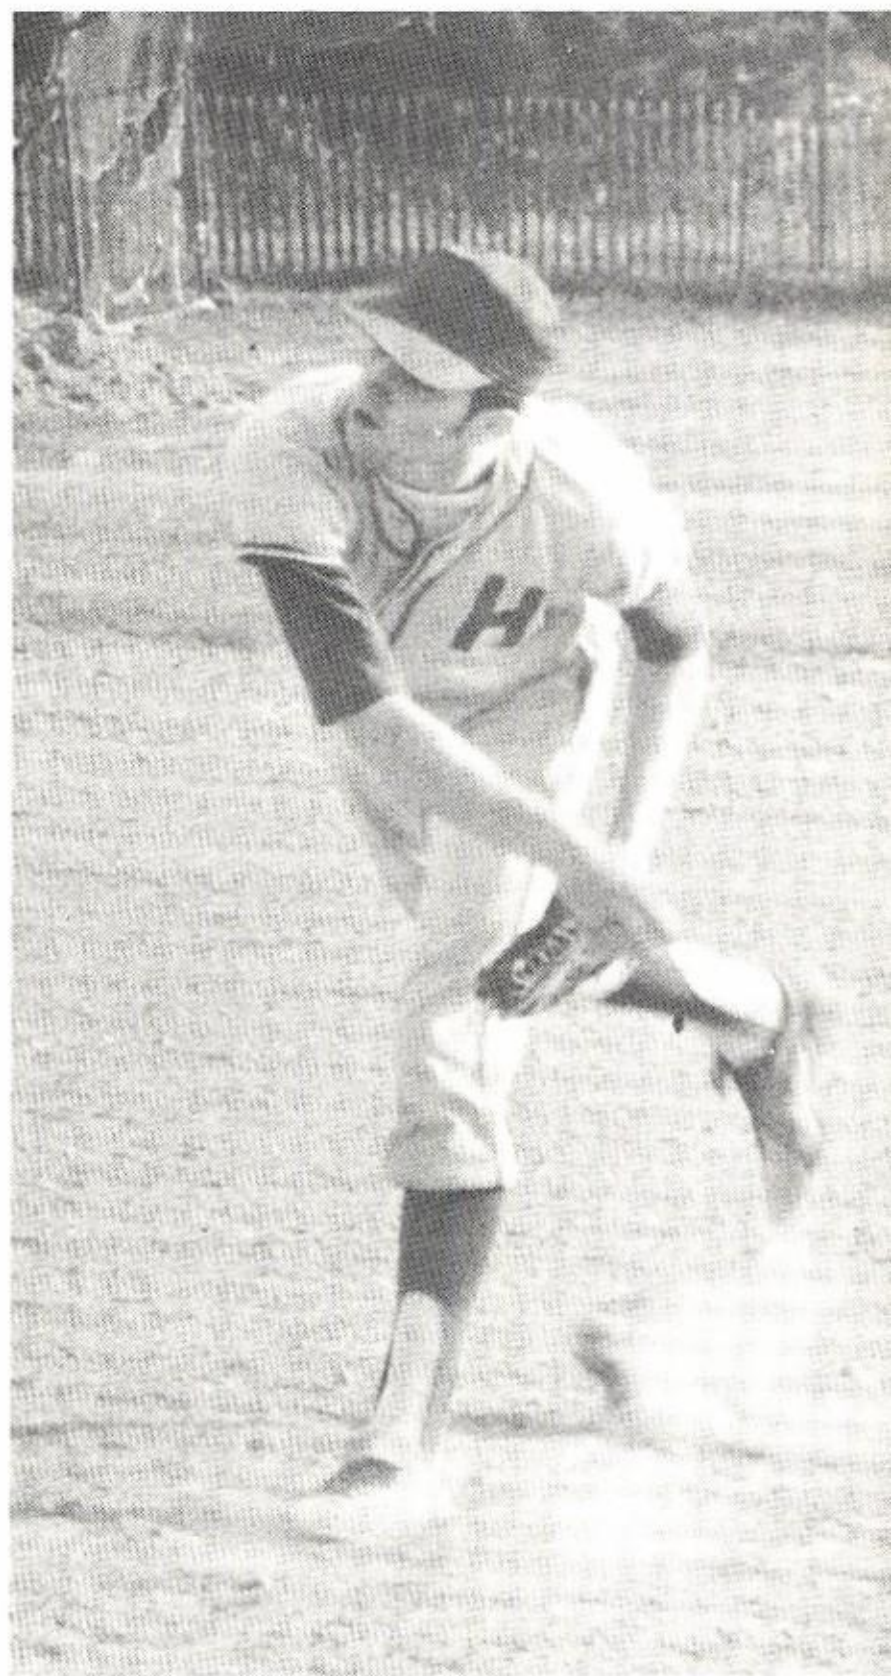

Alvin knocks the ball from the catcher's hand as he steals home.

Catcher, Steve Buck, goes high for the all.

Practicing hard for a game only to find out its been canceled ... hitting a beautiful fly to outfield and having it caught ... Coach Black chewing his tobacco ... making the last out when bases are loaded ... fans screaming while you're sliding in home, then discovering you were out at third ... making the first home run of the season ... coming home with a victory ... showering after a long, hard game ... getting told about all of your numerous mistakes ... making a double play ... being chosen the most valuable player of the season ... all these memories are yours of the 1970 baseball season.

Pitcher, Bob Jenkins, fires the ball in over home plate.

Track Proves

Faster, Steve, faster!

BELOW: Jumping high over the first hurdle is Terry Tomblin.

A Cry, A Yell And A Scot Cheerleader

The wonderful excitement that belongs to only a cheerleader ... trying to sleep the night before your first big pep rally ... the ride home on the bus after a big loss ... brief speeches by Co-captain Tom Burch and Steve Buck ... the tedious chore of making victory signs every week ... the frozen hands and feet after a football game ... It's all in being a Highland Cheerleader.

A hopeful look may help when the going gets rough.

Homecoming

Beaming Queen, Terri House reigns over "70" Homecoming.

Homecoming 1970 Royalty are Terri House, Barb Ufferman, Linda Thomas, Robin Holbrook, Vicki Davis, Rox Ann Rowlen, and retiring queen Phyllis Dial. Junior Attendants: Jeff Gray and Denise Taylor.

Highlights

FROM ONE QUEEN TO ANOTHER ...

Captains Richard Myser and Chuck Rowlen as they crown the Queen.

The snake dance at the pre-game bonfire ... booster balloons ... radiant queen, Terri House ... the attendants' high heels sinking into the soft ground ... white homecoming mums ... squeaks and screams of faithful fans ... a cheerleader jumping ten feet off the ground ... the "charge" yell from the band ... post game sock hop ... the queen's throne ... the 1969 HIGHLAND HOMECOMING.

Homecoming game in action.

Coach Adams instructs Brad on the play.

Post Game Dance with the band, The Standing Ovation, was a success as Highland's first sock-hop.

Sounds On The Christmas Side

The beautiful blend of voices ring out the Christmas spirit under the direction of Mr. Charles Snyder.

The exhilaration of playing the first note ... being reminded a thousand times to smile when you sing ... hours of practice ... having a squeaky horn ... forgetting your music ... being embarrassed when everyone is on key, but you ... sight reading music ... drop your jaw ... loo, le, la, law ... getting a cold the week of the concert ... hoping you'll sing on key ... opening a surprise package and discovering you've got a collection of old papers ... seeing the audience smile as you swing into the number, forgetting the first word of your solo ... the Christmas Concert ... December 1969 ... directed by Mr. Glauner and Mr. Snyder.

Kettle drum booms out as Steve Wickware bongs to the tune of "Jingle Bells."

Winter

Queen Linda Kempton and King Danny Baldwin at the Student Council Winter Formal.

Wondering if your date will show up ... will he like the way you look ... pinning on your corsage ... thinking how gallant he looks in his suit ... shiny waxed cars ... arriving and discovering you've left your tickets at home ... a slippery freshly-waxed floor ... retiring King and Queen ... the crowning of the new King and Queen ... a dance dedicated especially for Queen Linda and King Danny ... the agony of waiting in line for pictures of you and your date ... exhausted couples finding punch and cookies a good reason to sit and rest ... chaperones enjoy their evening with the young generation ... dancing closely the last dance ... December 6, 1969 ... this, the Student Council-planned Winter Formal happening.

Jenny expresses herself in song.

Dancing

Shimmering holiday candles gave a festive air to the snack tables.

Sitting out a few rounds.

BELOW: Queen Linda Kempton, King Danny Baldwin reign with their court, Bob Jenkins, Jenny Phillips, Barb Griffith, Richard Myser, Dwight Ragor and Diane Wickline over the Winter Formal.

LI'L ABNER . . . Juniors Have Smash Hit!

Mammy Yokum on the beat.

"It's just a can of worms" this thing called love.

"Take Ten" . . . time out from rehearsal jitters to relax and get a few pointers on acting.

Putting on that final touch of makeup ... Dress rehearsal ... forgetting your first line ... throwing the "whammy" at the wrong time ... practice every night ... shining spotlights ... Mr. Welch's direction ... your voice cracking in the middle of your love scene ... the "experience" of using a live goat ... Sadie Hawkins Day ... the surprise guest ... the laughter ... the tears ... the sleepless nights thinking about your lines ... the feeling of success after the first performance ... the glorious sound of applause ... "Little Abner" marked a fine performance for the Junior Class.

Abner spurns affection.

A tense moment in Dog Patch.

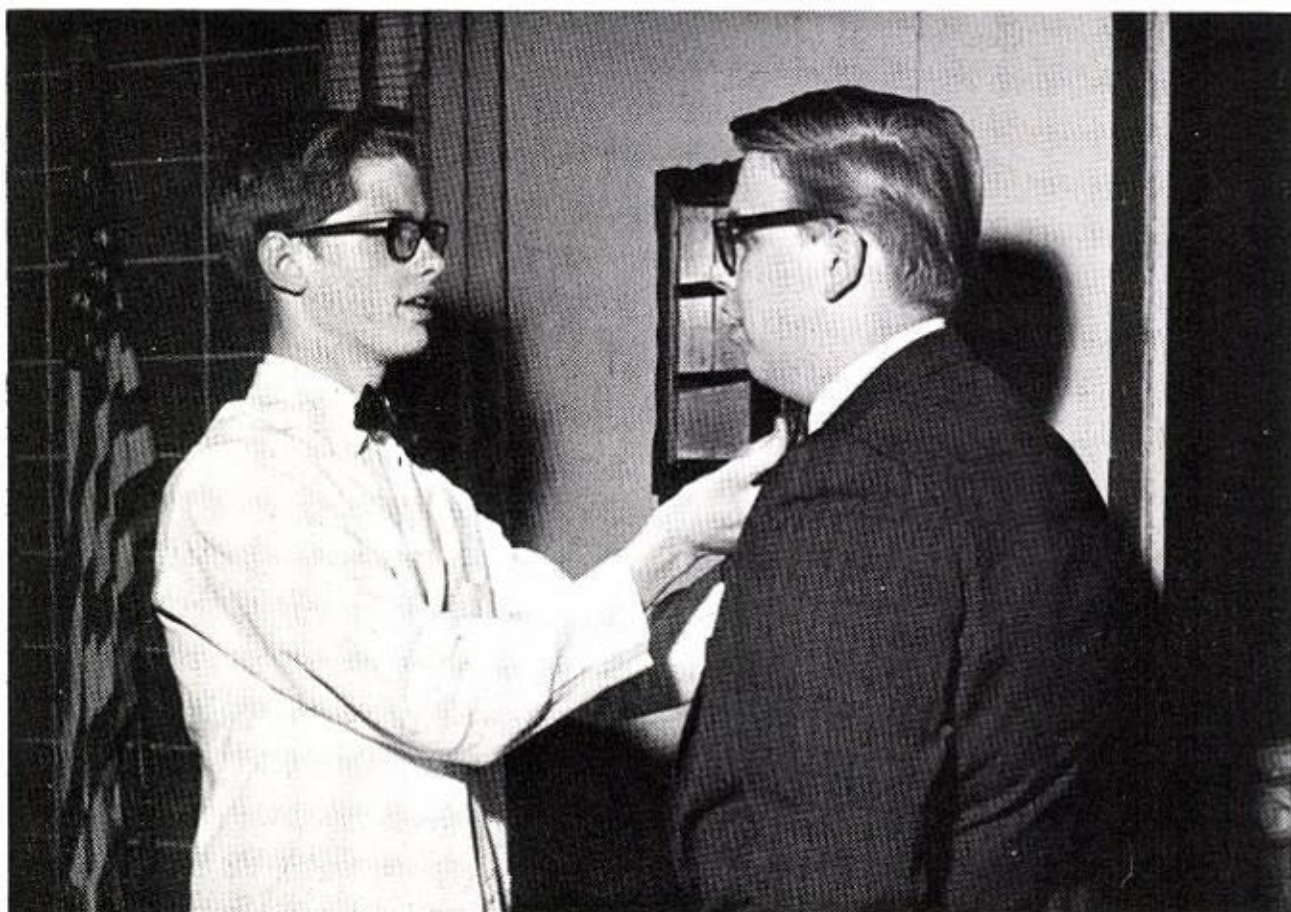

Mammy Yokum gives Daisy Mae lessons in the art of catching Lil Abner.

Help Was There When Help Was Needed

Two nights of "The Bat" ... the thrill of receiving a laugh from an "ad lib" ... the failure of the glass to break when the script calls for a broken glass ... crawling through attics for two weeks looking for usable props ... our wonderful circ-ite Mrs. Welch ... presenting a usable scenery prop to future classes ... trying to sleep the night before the play ... Bartley Ardnt and his "Special Effects" ... the hidden fireplace ... the assurance by our director, Mrs. Welch; ... "The Bat", a play we will never forget!

A crooked tie is never a problem when a friend is near.

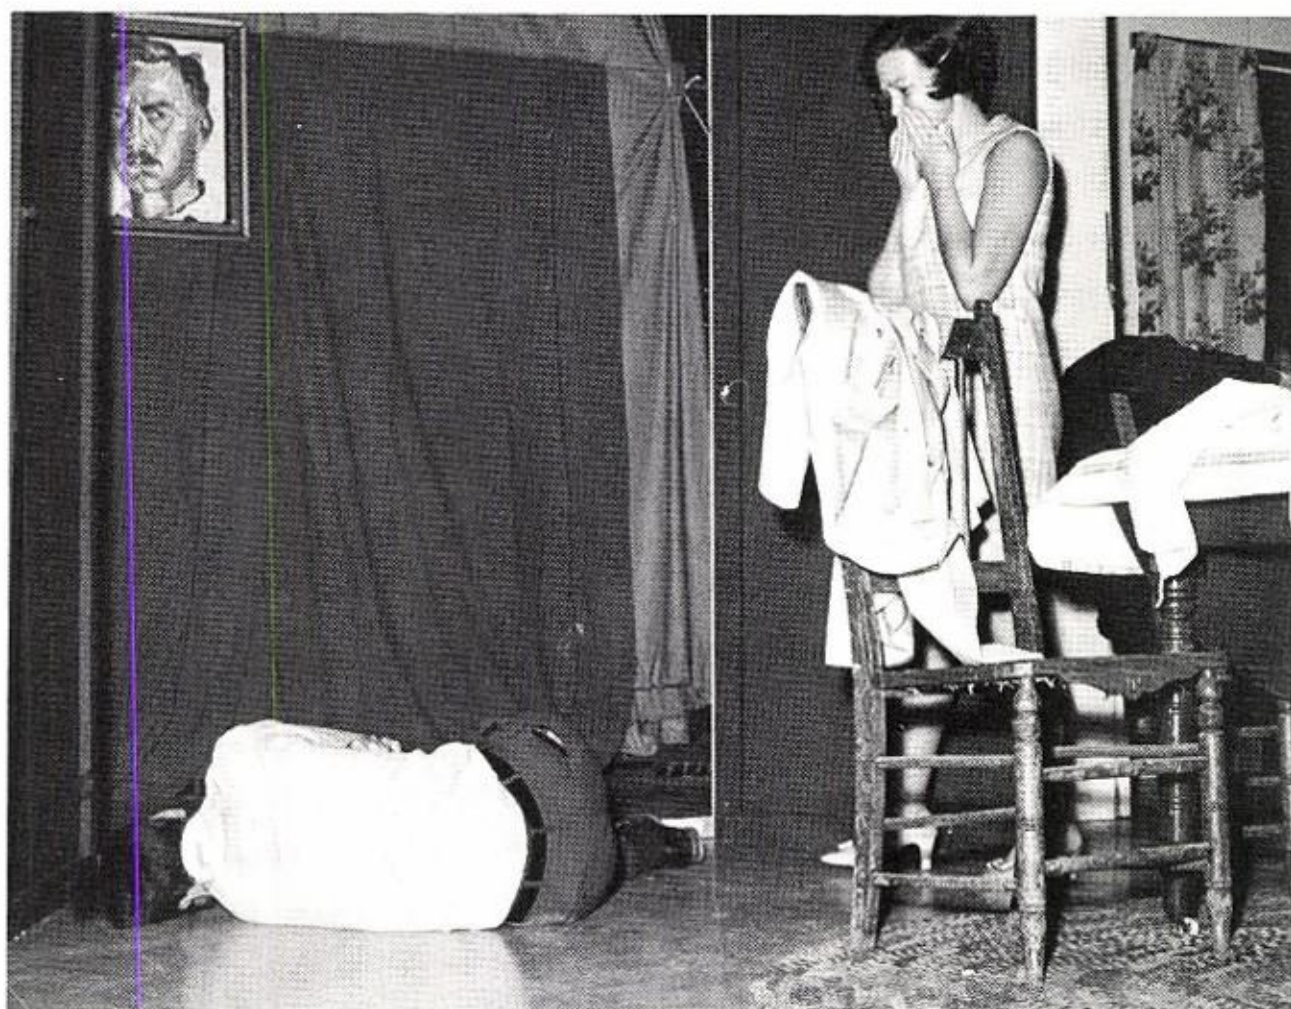

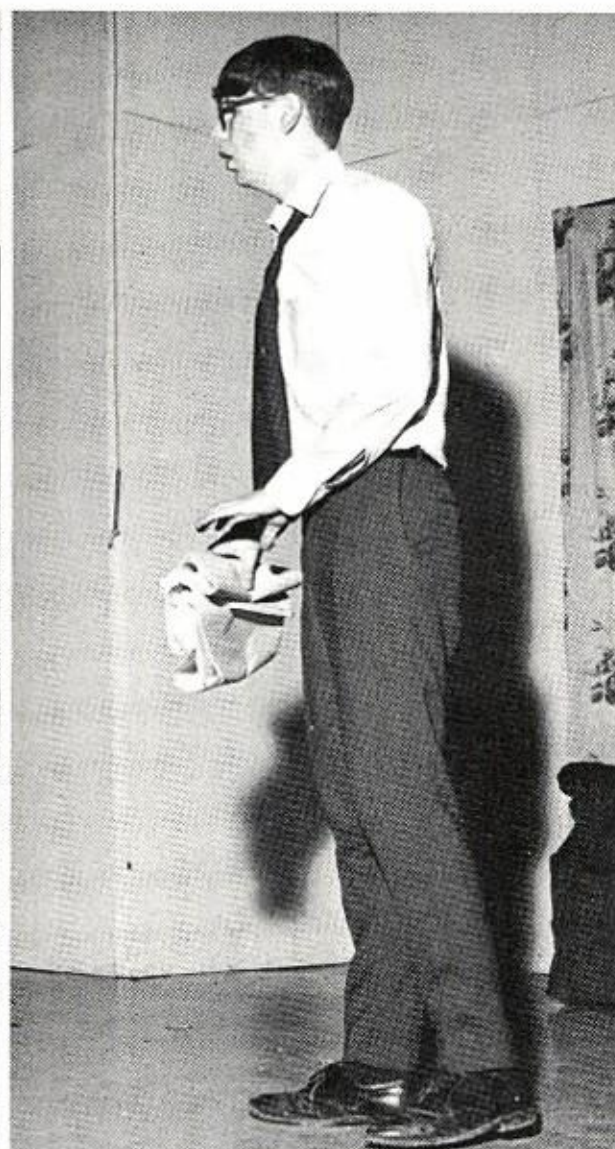

UP: Randy Bush (The Stranger) receives help from two unknown chaps when he is knocked unconscious by the "bat".

RIGHT: Together Bartley Ardnt and Director Mr. Welch put together the scenery.

Sneaking up on a frightened girl isn't very safe, and "The Bat" proves that you can't out-manuever a girl either.

The Bat

A Mystery

A Fine Performance Given By Seniors

The uncontrollable urge to be late for practice ... getting to know a classmate you thought you already knew ... the smell of fresh paint ... the short tempers of dress rehearsals ... taking a break for ice cream ... Gregg's cigars ... Larry's cigarettes ... and Dan's pipe ... the burnable blueprints that wouldn't burn ... the constant help from student director, Karen Henson ... it was a very good play ... ask any cast member.

Angela Jobe and Nancy Chandler "make-believe" with the ouiji board

Clues are discovered to solve the mystery.

the plot unfolds . . .

Disagreements were common between the detective Gregg Potts and maid, Nancy Chandler.

The butler, played by Roger Hartwell, didn't do it.

The friendly doctor relaxes with his pipe.

There must always be an innocent bystander in every murder. The victim was Larry Ulrey.

The Long-Awaited Night Of Nights

SHANGRI-LA ... the lowered gym ceiling ... green shrubs everywhere ... the mingling fragrance of perfume ... white dinner jacket ... long flowing formals ... the fear of having your corsage clash with your formal ... entertainment by the 3-Kings ... waiting in line to have your picture taken ... Most Popular Senior Couple, Ron Goare and Linda Kempton ... spending hours polishing your shoes then having your partner step on them ... putting on the finishing touches ten minutes before the prom begins ... the headache of trying to keep everything a secret from the seniors ... falling asleep at the drive-in ... it all happened at the Prom.

A delicious meal and good company puts everyone in good spirits.

Even Chaperones have a wonderful time.

RIGHT: Long hours of hard work were given graciously by Junior mothers.

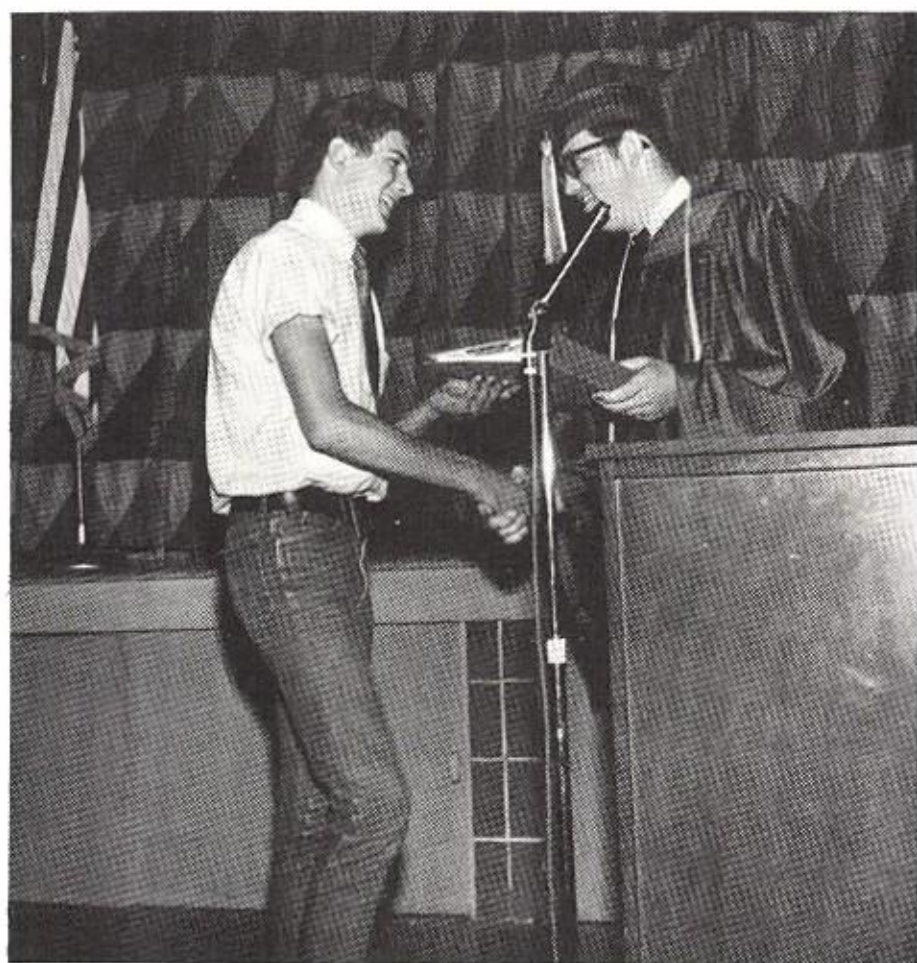

Good music was provided by the Polarians.

The elegant night brings an air of melancholy and love.

Outstanding Students Are Recognized

1970 class president, Randy Bush, presents the Senior book to the 1971 class president, Alvin Wickline.

RIGHT: It is an honor and a privilege to wear the Honor Society Cord.

Sharon and Karen in a tight squeeze.

The 1970 Junior Class saw many "firsts" this year ... the nine period day ... a course in Spanish language ... a dance emceed by Jerry Rasor ... the musical comedy, L'LL ABNER

Many things remained the same, however ... keen competition for Girls' and Boys' State ... the chance to perform experiments in a laboratory ... the choosing of Class rings ... the excitement of selecting courses for our last year of high school

Art gets some special attention from Mrs. Miley.

Foreign Exchange Students

FROM VENEZUELA, SOUTH AMERICA, Ibis Morales poses for the photographer.

OUR LIMA, PERU STUDENT, Gino Martini plays the trumpet in the band.

First flight to United States ... seeing snow for the first time ... slipping on the ice ... trying to talk to someone when you know only Spanish ... helping in your new family's home ... supporting the Fighting Scots Basketball team ... joining the band and skipping out of class whenever possible ... playing baseball on the high school team ... working on a farm ... going to American movies and on shopping sprees ... visiting the office to talk to the secretary ... these are a few of the things that our foreign exchange students, Gino and Ibis, enjoyed.

It was fun for us just getting to know them, and we appreciated especially, Gino's works of art — he is really quite a talented fellow.

It is hard to imagine that in 25 years, in the year 1995 you'll probably wander back through the dusty pages of this book.

You'll find you have grown a little older, a little heavier and even a little wiser.

As you turn the pages, you'll remember some of the names, few of the faces and all the good times from the year 1970.

And that is the way it should be ....

The book is almost finished. Many people will look at it, put it down, and forget about it, but to others it will hold a special meaning. Some will wonder why we used a certain picture or why there wasn't more color, or why we spent so much money on our cover. To me, there is a mistake on every page, but if I had it to do over, I would only find other mistakes. Many long hours, patience, and hard work went into the production of this book. I would like to give these people credit.

To Mrs. Waite, my advisor: For many years you have produced yearbooks, but never have you run across such a bull-headed editor.

To Mr. Parks, our Company Advisor: Without your many new ideas our book would have been dull and ordinary.

To Photorama: We took advantage of your talents and time but it was all for a better yearbook.

To my teachers: You were expected to teach a class during the many interruptions I caused.

To Mr. Ingraham: Many times you didn't have the time to listen to my demands, but you always listened anyway.

To my parents: You had to put up with my short temper before every deadline.

To my staff: I appreciate all the extra time and effort you made whenever I asked for it.

To my co-editor, Cherri: You took over when I couldn't.

To the Class of '70: Without your support, the yearbook would not have been possible.

Co-Editor,
Debbie Sample

Ode To Seniors

The last page of the '70 yearbook ... The last time to walk down the halls as Highland High School Students ... the last study hall. The last essay ... the last assembly ... the last forgotten gym clothes ... the last Home Ec dress ... The last prom ... the last time we will hear "please excuse this interruption for some announcements ... the last time to be caught chewing gum ... the last time of trying to sing a Beck number with a sore throat ... the last time to skip class ... the last broken pencil ... the last time to stay after school ... the last science project ... the last pep sign ... the last jammed finger after a football game ... the last lecture ... the last flubbed chemistry experiment ... the last school newspaper ... the last nail of the last shop project ... the last shorthand speed test ... the last time you'll paint up your face for the class play ... the last time you'll tease a freshman ... the last grade card ... the last pep talk with the Principal ... the last mail card explaining future opportunities ... the last skating party ... the last shrill note from your trumpet ... the last 3:15 ... the last day of the last year ... Highland school dismissed for you forever.
